

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
PANAMA CITY DIVISION

RAMON ARMAS BORROTO, JR.,

vs. PLAINTIFF

vs.

CASE NO: 5:04CV165-RH/WCS

MCDONALD, PATE,

MCKENZIE, and KENT

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

Plaintiff, Ramon Armas Borroto, Jr., pro se, moves this court for an order enlarging the time within which the Plaintiff has to file a response to the Defendants objection. The Plaintiff would show this court that good cause exists for granting such motion and that no prejudice will result to the Defendants.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Rule 1.090(b), Fla. R. Civ. P., provides that the court, for cause shown, may enlarge the time within which a party has to take action pursuant to an order of the court. The plaintiff received the defendants objection on the 28th of August, 2006. The plaintiff has 10 days within which to file a response. The Plaintiff has already completed his response to the defendants objection but must wait for the prison system to make the required copies so that the plaintiff may file his response. He must then wait for the legal mail official to pick up legal mail. He doesn't come every day as required so the plaintiff seeks an additional 10 days from the date of this motion for enlargement of time. For this reason the plaintiff seeks enlargement of time.

Granting the requested enlargement of time will not prejudice the Defendants and will allow this court to expeditiously resolve the issues raised in the present case. This Motion for Enlargement is made in good faith and not for purpose of delay.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff moves this court for an order enlarging the time within NORTHERN DISTRICT OF FLA Plaintiff has to file a response to the Defendants objection.
